

About The Speaker

Elaine Edmond, MD, PhD, is a neurologist with Pan American Neurology in Albuquerque New Mexico, specializing in multiple sclerosis and Devic's disease.

Dr. Edmonds received her master's degree in anatomy at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. She earned a doctorate degree in neuroanatomy at the University of Arizona in Tucson, and went on to earn her medical degree at the Indiana University School of Medicine in Indianapolis. She completed a residency in neurology at Oregon Health Sciences University in Portland.

In addition to her practice at Pan American Neurology, Dr. Edmonds is a diplomate in neurology with the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. She is in frequent demand to speak on new developments and therapies for the treatment of multiple sclerosis.