

Elissa Berlinger, LCSW

Elissa Berlinger is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and MS Educator. She has been involved with the Rocky Mountain MS Center since 2010, after being diagnosed with MS. She received her Master of Social Work from Smith College School for Social Work and she completed a clinical fellowship at the University of Colorado Boulder. Through her role with the Rocky Mountain MS Center, she teaches MS 101 with Kelsey Morrow and provides therapeutic support for individuals, families, and loved ones who have been impacted by MS for the Rocky Mountain MS Center. She is in private practice in Denver.