

Matt Schenk, CPO

Clinic Manager, Highlands Ranch CO

Matt graduated in 2008 from the University of Washington's Prosthetics and Orthotics Program. He completed both his prosthetics and orthotics residencies with Hanger Clinic in Wheat Ridge, Colorado. After seven years with Hanger, he then accepted a role as Clinical Director for a private prosthetic and orthotic facility in Denver. In 2021, he returned to Hanger as Clinic Manager of the Highlands Ranch, Colorado office.

Matt services patients of all ages, and specializes in advanced lower extremity prosthetic and orthotic solutions, spinal trauma, and pediatric prosthetics and orthotics. He takes great care in evaluating and listening to his patient's needs, with the overall goal of returning them to the life they want to lead.

Outside of work, Matt loves spending time outdoors - camping, fishing, and hiking with his wife, two young children, and three dogs.
