
EQUIPMENT IDEAS FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS

Ryan Mueller, PT, DPT, NCS

June 25th, 2025

Multiple Sclerosis Alliance of Southern Colorado

DISCLAIMER

The equipment discussed is not intended to be recommendations or prescriptions for attendees. They are educational in nature to provide potential ideas and to provide evidence in support of persons with MS. The presenter has no financial affiliations or business relationship with any of the products or companies. Please consult your doctor or a license healthcare provider (physical therapist) to discuss initiation proper equipment for yourself.

GAIT AND ASSISTIVE DEVICES

Walkers and canes

Electrical Stimulation

- Bioness
- Walk Aide
- Cionic

Cadense shoes

Hip flexor assist device (Becker) or NewGait

AFOs

Dorsiflexion assist

BATHROOM

Bidet

Elevated toilet seat

Grab bars

Shower chair or shower bench

Toilet commode

Rolling shower commode chair

Handheld shower head

Long handle shower brush

BEDROOM

Bed cane

Transfer poles

Slideboards

Hoyers

Modifiable bed

Lowering or raising height of bed

FINE MOTOR

Reachers

Button hooks

Shoe horns

Spring shoe laces

Adaptive utensils or foam grips

Plate guards

Jar opener

Ergosof Penagain Pen (or large pens)

Use of AI or Voice command

Tremor dampening keyboard or large mouse

Universal cuff

POWER MOBILITY

Scooters can be hazardous or develop pain (posture)

- Not typically covered by insurance

Small electric wheelchairs (Jazzy) not covered by insurance

Custom manual wheelchairs

Custom power wheelchairs

Standing frame

VANS

- United Access
 - Modifications to vans
 - Van rentals
 - New custom modified
- Adaptive Driving
 - Fitness to Drive

QUESTIONS?

Neuro Logic Rehabilitation and Wellness

Ryan@neurologicrehab.com

719-306-0009

www.neurologicrehab.com

