Suzan Philpott Returns To Town With Gifts For All!

By Joy Blackburn
MSA Staff Writer

With Covid casting its ugly shadow over a second holiday season, cheer is running in short supply. The dreary slog of isolation is mentioned in every one of our "zooming" support groups. Everyone is tired of it, but everyone is scared, and everyone is tired of being scared. What we all need is a holiday party.

Well, cue the sunshine and the ringing of bells! Suzan Philpott has returned to town, delivering a personal-sized party to our members at home. Suzan and her family spend all year planning, purchasing and assembling their famous gift bags, and it's all for naught if our members can't receive them! With that in mind, Suzan sleighed in from Texas for a second year in a row to deliver each gift bag personally
