

Janice

BAKER

MBA RDN CDCES
CNSC BC-ADM

Registered Dietitian/Nutritionist
Certified Diabetes Care and Education Specialist
Certified Nutrition Support Clinician
Board Certified—Advanced Diabetes Management

An alumnus of California Polytechnic State University in San Luis Obispo, Janice completed her post graduate dietetic internship at Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio and a master's degree in business administration while working toward additional certifications in diabetes management and nutrition support.

Janice started practice in 1983 as a clinical/acute care dietitian and assistant manager of nutrition services at Palomar Hospital in Poway, California before joining Arch Medical Group in 1994 to provide nutrition and disease management services. She has worked with Alsana, Montecatini and Mandometer clinics for eating disorder treatment, and home health, orthopedic and other preoperative surgery education for Palomar Health in Poway and Escondido. She also has a private practice and consults with a variety of corporations.

Janice volunteers with Taking Control of Your Diabetes and other organizations to promote diabetes prevention, education and management. Janice has also worked with public schools and universities to educate students and faculty on health and nutrition issues.

jbaker9@gmail.com